

Lead the kitchen this winter – Become our Chef at Wens Hotels in Saalbach!

At Wens Hotels, we serve memorable meals that fuel unforgettable experiences — for both our business groups and holiday guests. Located in the breathtaking mountains of Austria, our hotels welcome international guests with great food, genuine hospitality, and a hands-on team spirit.

We're looking for an experienced Chef who can confidently lead our kitchen team and create tasty, well-presented dishes for up to 110 guests per evening.

What you'll be doing:

- Leading the kitchen operations from planning to plating
  - Preparing high-quality meals for groups and à la carte guests
  - Managing kitchen staff, planning schedules, and ensuring smooth service
  - Taking responsibility for stock control, ordering, and hygiene standards
  - Working closely with hotel management to design and improve menus

Who you are:

Confident & Stress-Resistant – You don't shy away from a full dining room. Cooking for 110 guests? You're up for it.

A Natural Planner – You know how to organize your team and kitchen efficiently, even on the busiest days.

Team Leader – You inspire your colleagues and keep the atmosphere in the kitchen positive and productive.

Quality-Driven – You take pride in consistency, cleanliness, and taste.

Experienced – You've worked as a chef or sous-chef in hotels or restaurants, preferably with experience in group catering.

What we offer:

- A competitive salary
  - Staff accommodation and meals
  - The opportunity to work in the beautiful region of Saalbach
  - A supportive, international team with room for ideas and creativity

What you bring:

- Proven experience as a Chef or Sous-Chef
- A structured, proactive work approach with a passion for cooking and hospitality
- You're available during the winter season: 01.12.2025 – 01.04.2026
- English or German skills are a plus
